DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ogino (U.S. 6,747,399).

The applied reference has a common Ogino with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Ogino discloses an pressure sensitive sensor(50) in figs,(4,5,7,25) comprising: a central electrode(20), a pressure sensitive layer(22); an outer electrode(21); and a plurality of lead-out wires( located in the front and back of the sensor ( 21) see fig.7) provided with insulating coating21 (fig.20) being laminated(23) and formed in a shape of a cable.

Wherein at a distal end portion (fig.7) at least one of the lead-out wires is connected to the central electrode and the remaining lead-out wire (fig.7) is connected to the outer electrode (21). In regards to independent claim 2, the pressure sensor has at least one lead out wire (21) and the distal end portion one of the central electrode (20) and the outer electrode is connected to the lead out wire. Wherein, the lead-out wires are disposed in close contact with the central electrode (see fig.7) and the outer electrode.

Ogino also disclose, the lead -out characteristic that have a mechanical strength that is greater than that of at least one of the central electrodes and the outer electrode.Ogino further disclose, a protective portion(14) providing the insulation protection for the distal end portion. Wherein the pressure sensitive layer (22) is formed of a piezoelectric material.Ogino also disclose, the characteristic that their mechanical strength is greater than that of at least one of the central electrode and the outer electrode (21). Wherein, the pressure sensitive layer is formed of piezoelectric material.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Karen B. Addison whose telephone number is 571-272-2017. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00 to 4:30.
